

SESSION S1-3
Old world camelids

Mashkour Marjan & Beech Mark

mashkour@mnhn.fr
mark.beech@adach.ae

Title	Authors	Comm	Poster
Camels in Romania	Bálasescu Adrian	x
From dusk ⁽¹⁾ till dawn - Old World camel genetics, an overview	Burger Pamela	x
From caravans to camel fights: A proposal for interdisciplinary research into the social archaeology of camel hybridization.	Çakırlar C.	x
Camel remains from site HD6 (Ra's al-Hadd, Sultanate of Oman).	Curci Antonio		x
Camel, how shall I call you?	De Cupere Bea & Van Neer Wim	x
Camelids in the Northern Provinces of the Roman Empire	Fabienne Pigière		x
The Camedis today. Stakes and potentials	Faye Bernard	x
Camels, donkeys and caravan trade: an emerging context from Barāqish (Jawf, Yemen)	Fedela Francesco G.	x
Les voies de l'hybridation chez les camélidés	Konuspayeva Gaukhar & Faye Bernard	x
Dating Camel Domestication in the Ancient Near-East and the Emergence of the Incense Trade Road between Arabia and the Southern Levant (end of the II nd - beginning of the I st millennium BCE).	Michael Jasmin	x
The detection of hybridization in the mongolian wild bactrian camel using mitochondrial and nuclear markers	Silbermayr Katja		x
Coalescent-based simulations of population ancestry of the two-humped camel (Camelus bactrianus)	Trinks Alexandra, Leonardi Michela, Burger Pamela, Benecke Norbert & Burger Joachim		x
Camels from Roman Imperial Sites in Serbia	Vukovic Sonja & Blazic Svetlana		x
Where are the camels?	Wapnish-Hesse Paula	x	